

Fully portable, compact live gas camera system for emergency response activities on 4" to 8" metallic mains.

SynthoSeek

- Survey up to 56m from a single excavation.
- Use on 4" to 8" low pressure metallic mains up to 75mbarg.
- Quicker diagnosis of in-pipe obstructions, poor pressure conditions and gas leakage.

- Obtain instant in-pipe information.
- No interruption to customer supplies.
- Improve customer satisfaction.
- Less Environmental impact.

- 30mm camera connected directly to 6mm Ultralife cobra, 30m long.
- Live launch via Wask base, on 4" to 8" diameter metallic mains.
- Push distance ranging from 15m to 28m in each direction, depending on diameter and condition of mains.
- System includes handheld display unit, rechargeable from mains or 12v in-car, designed to last 3.5 hours continual use from full charge.
- Lightweight and compact, weighing just 10kg, with overall dimensions of 70cm long, 30cm deep and 50cm high.

Emergency response activities

Finding leaks and connections

Investigating obstructions and pressure problems

Locating joints, defects and interference

CONTACT OUR TEAM TODAY TO DISCUSS YOUR REQUIREMENTS

01423 816060 > info@synthotech.co.uk > www.synthotech.com

Milner Court, Hornbeam Square South, Hornbeam Park, Harrogate, HG2 8NB